

Directions to Dublin- scenic route through Phoenix Park

Turn right out of gate at Beechwood Lodge

Take the 2nd turn on the right.

Continue to the stop T.Junction (Jack Quinns Pub) Turn Right.

Continue about 13 miles through Batterstown.

At T.Junction Turn right onto N3

Continue straight through 2 roundabouts (keep in center lane)

On the 3rd roundabout take the 3rd exit (right)

This will bring you onto a narrow road, about 50 mtrs along you will see the entrance to the Phoenix park on the left.

Go through the gates and turn right at the next turn.

Continue to crossroads with main road through Phoenix Park

Turn left onto the main road at the crossroads.

Continue straight through all roundabouts till you exit the park.

One roundabout will have a monument on it. To the right is the residence of the American Ambassador. To the left is the entrance to the Irish Presidents Residence. You will see the house a little further along on the left.

One of the upper windows is a light which is always on to welcome back Irish people working abroad.

Exit Park and keep going straight after 2 sets of lights you will see the rillfey river on your right.

Continue for at least 3 bridges before looking for parking.

Jervis st car park is on the left, multi storey.Look for signs.

Parking here you will be handy to the college you want to visit, which is just off O'Connell st, and the Grafton area.

Hope these directions work out well for you.

Enjoy Dublin and the rest of your trip to Ireland.